

BARGAIN LIST

OF CHEAP

UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN COINS

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

FOR SALE BY

CHAS. STEIGERWALT,

130 East King St.,

Lancaster, Pa.

REMARKS.

Too many low-priced coins have accumulated from collections purchased, and by marking them considerably below cost an effort is made to clean them out as rapidly as possible. It takes too much valuable time to bother with them, and by an avoidance of the purchase of similar lots in the future, a restriction to fine coins only and the investment of their value in other directions, it is expected the loss will be fully made up. The collector will be the gainer, however, as they are offered lower than cheapest auction rates.

It is expected that all orders are absolute sale, as if returned too much time is wasted re-arranging, and other orders may be received while the goods are out. This rule is not iron-clad, however, as to single coin items, and will be waived if satisfactory reasons can be given when ordering and goods not desired are promptly returned. It is absolute, however, regarding bulky lots.

As the goods are offered at a loss, special attention is called to the question of shipping expenses, which must be paid by the purchaser in all cases. If to be sent by mail, registration fee must be added.

Send orders early, as only the piece or lot advertised can be supplied at so low a rate, and none of the items can be duplicated so cheaply.

A catalogue of over 100 pages containing about 5000 coin items to a value of $15,000 will be issued early in the Fall.
